PRSSV – Performers: (Level 5) 2024

Access route:

1. Candidates will be required to have completed PRSSV Certificate of Performance (or equivalent) to prove their competence as a performer and their knowledge of the necessary theory, (Level 4).
2. The candidate will be required to demonstrate recital skills of a high standard worthy of an international performance.
3. The candidate will further be required to provide the Board with a written analysis of their own work at least three months before the date of the planned Diploma performance, outlining the areas they wish to improve in their performance and the steps they will require to take to achieve that improvement

Performance:

The candidate will perform to an invited audience, a varied programme, showing their skills both as a soloist (instrumental and vocal) and in ensemble (dance) Pieces should be own choice – to be approved by the board.

The candidate should provide the audience with a spoken explanation of the performance and demonstrate the ability to interact with the audience in a professional and ‘performance’ fashion. This programme must be video recorded to demonstrate the candidate’s performance and audience participation.

They will also be required to submit written programme notes prepared for this performance. These programme notes should demonstrate the candidate’s appreciation that the audience might include fellow artists who are themselves competent in the chosen field, but also others who have little understanding of the genre.

Prerequisite for candidates wishing to appear for this diploma:

A pass at the PRSSV Level 4 Certificate in Performance to prove their competence as a player and their knowledge of the necessary theory. For further details and registration, contact the PRSSV office.
