PRSSV Diploma in Performance

This diploma recognises the candidates' ability as a Performer, to be able to put together a well-balanced programme and to communicate with an audience, both musically and intellectually.

The examination requires the candidate to provide the PRSSV examinations Board with a video recording of a performance to an invited audience, a programme of music showing their skills as a solo player and as an accompanist (pieces should be own choice – to be approved by the board)

This recital should include providing the audience with a spoken explanation of the performance and also, demonstrate the ability to interact with the audience in a professional and 'performance' fashion. They will also be required to submit the programme notes prepared for this performance.

Prerequisite for candidates wishing to appear for this diploma:

A pass at the PRSSV Level 4 Certificate in Performance (Grade 9) to prove their competence as a player and their knowledge of the necessary theory.

For further details and registration, contact the PRSSV office.
